

KCAW-FM

Raven Radio 104.7 FM • 90.1 FM

Home

Program Schedule

Become a Member

News

Calendar

Contact Us

News Tools

- Podcasting FAQ
- RSS FAQ
- Flash Player Help

Icy Strait attraction adjusts to tighter tour season

Ed Schoenfeld

STREAMING 0:01:51.334

⏸ ⏪ ⏩ 🔊 🔇

Image by Ed Schoenfeld (2009)
Bear search near Icy Strait.

JUNEAU, ALASKA (2010-05-12) Cruise ships started pulling into Alaska port cities earlier this month. And their numbers will increase as the month progresses. But overall, the season will bring fewer ships and passengers than recent years.

Businesses throughout the state are preparing by cutting back on hiring, merchandise and tours. We checked in with one Southeast destination, Hoonah's Icy Strait Point, about how it's adjusting.

Hear a full report on Icy Strait Point.

Take a virtual ride on the ZipRider, a mile-long zipline.

Link to Icy Strait's website, with information on tours and other attractions.

Tourists explore the beach at Icy Strait Point in Hoonah.

© Copyright 2010, CoastAlaska

Submit Feedback

Submit News Tip

Home | Contact Us | Privacy Policy | Login

Copyright © 2011, KCAW • Web Site Design by David Pichard • Banner photo: by Mim McConnell.